Planning Commission Staff Report

Subject: Vote Report

Meeting Date: January 25, 2010

From: Shawn Seymour, AICP Annissa McCaskill – Clay, AICP
Project Planner Lead Senior Planner

Petition: P.Z. 13-2007 City of Chesterfield (Residential Districts, Residential Tear Downs and Additions Ordinance, and Planned Unit Development Ordinance).

Proposal Summary

The City of Chesterfield is proposing a variety of modifications to the residential zoning districts, residential tear down and additions, and the Planned Environmental Unit (PEU) special procedure sections of the City of Chesterfield Zoning Ordinance. These sections are more commonly known as Zoning Ordinance Sections 1003.105, 1003.106, 1003.107, 1003.108, 1003.109, 1003.110, 1003.112, 1003.113, 1003.115, 1003.117, 1003.119, 1003.120, 1003.120A, 1003.121, 1003.123, and 1003.125. As requested by the City Council, the Ordinance Review Committee has formulated a collection of proposed modifications. A simplified list of modifications are provided below:

1. The residential zoning districts have been revised to include a common format for easier use and readability.
2. The residential tear down and additions sections of the Zoning Ordinance have been merged into one section.
3. The residential additions trigger for Planning Commission review has been modified.
4. The Planned Environmental Unit (PEU) ordinance has been replaced with Planned Unit Development (PUD) ordinance.

Proposal History

The Ordinance Review Committee along with Staff were directed by the City Council to review the above referenced ordinances. Through Ordinance Review Committee review, draft amendments to each of the above referenced documents were created proposing a variety of modifications and on February 9, 2009 a public hearing was held to present and discuss in front of the Planning Commission. At the time of public hearing an issue relating to the calibrating of the proposed Floor Area Ratio (FAR) values was identified.

The proposed FAR values were reexamined and on July 27, 2009 this petition was further discussed by the Planning Commission at an issues meeting. Additional issues relating to the FAR and its application to other ordinances were also identified at this time. The Planning Commission then requested that the FAR standard and petition be directed back to the Ordinance Review Committee for further discussion.

The Ordinance Review Committee met multiple times to discuss the issues relating to the proposed inclusion of an FAR standard. It was determined that the inclusion of an FAR standard in the residential zoning districts is unwarranted at this time and therefore has been removed from the residential zoning districts.

Due to concerns relating the purpose statement of the Residential Tear Downs and Addition Ordinance and its application to proposed improvements; a modification has been made to this portion of the ordinance in an attempt to eliminate subjectiveness and to increase the language strength. Various small modifications relating development standards and language were also made to the PUD ordinance between the date of public hearing and the final meeting regarding the PUD and ORC. However, the ordinance has been largely untouched from its version presented for Public Hearing.

Proposal Analysis

Residential Zoning Districts

Through revisions to the residential sections of the City of Chesterfield Zoning Ordinance, the common format has been lost. Differences between the "R" Residence Districts and "E" Estate Districts are apparent and are a cause of confusion when attempting to navigate through these sections of the Zoning Ordinance. A standard format for the residential zoning districts has been established and is provided below.

- A. Purpose Statement
- B. Land Uses
- C. Establishment of Zoning District
- D. Development Standards
- E. Dedications
- F. Community Character Development Standards

Residential Tear Down & Additions

The City of Chesterfield currently has two sections of the Zoning Ordinance that cover residential tear downs and additions, which essentially contain many of the same provisions and requirements. This has been revised to have both sections merged into one; thereby removing many redundancies and ensuring better readability for both functions. A modification has also been made with regards to the trigger for which an application for a residential addition would require Planning Commission review and approval. The current trigger is a simple square footage value, where if a proposed development exceeds 500 sf., review and approval by the Planning Commission is required. This has been revised to include only those additions that exceed 1,000 sf. in size and will exceed 30% of the existing dwelling unit floor area square footage.

The Ordinance Review Committee has also noted a problematic purpose statement with regards to the draft ordinance that was carried over from the residential additions ordinance. This language included the requirement that all additions be "harmonious and compatible" with existing residential structures. The ORC found that this language was far too subjective and requested that Staff research other local government like ordinances to determine what other types of language was utilized. Staff found that most local governments chose not to include such descriptive language; rather to utilize more simple yet stronger language that required residential improvements to meet all development standards. The revised purpose statement for the Residential Tear Downs and Additions Ordinance reads as follows:

Tear downs and additions shall adhere to the development standards of the City of Chesterfield Zoning Ordinance as well as any other element of the City Code that shall be deemed applicable.

Planned Unit Development (PUD)

The City of Chesterfield currently has a Planned Environment Unit (PEU) Special Procedure. During review of proposed projects both the Planning Commission and the City Council have noted concerns regarding its complexity. As a result of these concerns, a Planned Unit Development (PUD) Special Procedure has been drafted to simplify the process and the zoning rights as granted to a developer by the City Council. The PUD ordinance is designed to provide maximum flexibility to City land development requirements and standards while ensuring that a high quality of development utilizing cutting edge residential development practices are provided to the City of Chesterfield.

As currently proposed, PUD's utilize the existing residential zoning to determine maximum permitted density. All dimensional standards are as approved at the time of granting of PUD zoning. Simply put, minimum lot sizes, setbacks, and building heights are all determined through negotiations with the Planning Commission and City Council. A land developer is no longer tied to the existing residential zoning of a particular property with regards to design, layout, and development standards.

Language has been added to the PUD ordinance to permit simultaneous petitions for zoning map amendments when an applicant is requesting PUD zoning. This action would be utilized when an applicant requests to obtain additional density units prior to obtaining PUD zoning. The language added to the PUD ordinance is as follows:

Simultaneous Change of Zoning Petitions. Where a developer or land owner wishes to request a change in the residential zoning designation prior to obtaining PUD zoning, an additional petition for a change of zoning outlining said request may be filed along with the petition for PUD zoning. The requirements for this additional petition are outlined in section 1003.300 of the City of Chesterfield Zoning Ordinance.

Request

The Ordinance Review Committee have studied the issues identified at the Public Hearing and the Issues Meetings and have made the appropriate modifications to the proposed ordinances. Staff requests action on the Residential Zoning Districts, Residential Tear Downs and Additions, and the Planned Unit Development Ordinances as written.

Motion

The following options are provided to the Planning Commission relative to this application:

1. "I move to approve (or deny) P.Z. 13-2007 Residential Zoning Districts, Residential Tear Downs and Additions, and Planned Unit Development Ordinances."
2. "I move to approve P.Z. 13-2007 Residential Zoning Districts, Residential Tear Downs and Additions, and Planned Unit Development Ordinances (Conditions may be added, eliminated, altered or modified)."

Section 1003.187 Planned Unit Development

1. Scope of Provisions:

This section contains the regulations of the Planned Unit Development or PUD. These regulations are supplemented and qualified by additional general regulations appearing elsewhere in Chesterfield City Code which are incorporated as part of this section.

2. Purpose:

The purpose of the PUD District is to encourage flexibility to the density requirements and development standards of the zoning ordinance that will result in exceptional design, character, and quality of new homogenous and mixed use developments; to promote the most appropriate use of land; to facilitate the provision of streets and utilities; and to preserve the natural and scenic features and open space.

3. General Requirements:

- A. All property that is at least four (4) contiguous acres shall be eligible for the PUD District designation.
- B. All property to be zoned PUD or an existing PUD zoning district being amended shall be under single ownership, or if under multiple ownership, then by written consent of all owners who agree to be bound by the PUD District designation and regulations.
- C. The detailed standards set forth herein are minimum requirements and it is the intent of this Section that the City of Chesterfield may impose conditions and safeguards in excess of, or in addition to, the specified minimal requirements. Satisfying the minimum standards set forth herein does not per se indicate that an application is entitled to a zoning change and notice is hereby given to that effect.

4. General Considerations:

The following are a list of general considerations to be reviewed by the City of Chesterfield when analyzing applications for PUD zoning:

- A. The Applicant's narrative statement describing the character of and rationale for the proposed development;
- B. Land uses proposed are adopted as permitted uses within the Residential Zoning Districts included in the City of Chesterfield Code;
- C. Proposed residential densities as they compare to current City of Chesterfield Comprehensive Plan designation, Zoning Map delineation, infrastructure capacity and the effect upon public services, and optimal usage of the land;
- D. Whether the major components of the PUD are properly located and should be able to continue to function if any of the other phases are not completed, taking into factors such as the infrastructure guarantee procedures described within City of Chesterfield Subdivision Ordinance;

- E. The compatibility of proposed land uses within the PUD with the surrounding land uses and the Land Use Map of the Comprehensive Plan;
- F. Effects upon public health, safety, and general welfare.

5. Design Features:

The following list includes design features suggested to be utilized by developers when applying for PUD zoning. Satisfaction of all or any of these design features is not mandatory, but the approval of PUD zoning will be predicated on the use of the below list or any other design feature deemed desirable by the City of Chesterfield. Proposed inclusion of these design features within a PUD can increase the flexibility of design standards and the ability of the developer to negotiate the mitigation of other requirements.

- A. Placement of structures on most suitable sites with consideration of maintaining existing site topography, soils, vegetation, slope, etc;
- B. Preservation of natural and cultural areas, as well as the creation of open space through active and passive recreation areas to include greenways, landscape gardens, plazas, and walking and cycling trails that serve to connect significant areas and various land uses;
- C. Preservation of existing mature trees and trees deemed extraordinary by the City of Chesterfield Tree Specialist due to but not limited to the following: size, type, origin, grouping, or number of;
- D. Enhanced landscaping, deeper and opaque buffers, and increased planting along public right-of-ways, open space/recreational areas, and the overall perimeter to protect and ensure compatibility with adjacent land uses;
- E. Utilization of Mixed Use buildings;
- F. Utilization of Traditional Neighborhood Design (TND) techniques in the layout and spatial organization of the development;
- G. Structures designed and constructed of an architectural vernacular that exceeds the typical building design and materials within the City of Chesterfield;
- H. Segregation of vehicular traffic from pedestrian/bicycle circulation networks, and other traffic mitigation measures;
- I. Incorporation of Transit Oriented Development (TOD) or direct access to public transportation;
- J. Provision of affordable housing;
- K. Utilization of Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) construction practices and development standards and the proposed LEED certification of buildings and grounds by the U.S. Green Building Council within the PUD; and

L. Inclusion of community facilities and the access thereto.

6. Permitted Land Uses:

A. Any land use, accessory land use, or conditional land use permitted in any Residential Zoning District adopted by the City of Chesterfield may be permitted in a PUD. - (c.) Once approved, said amended plan shall be recorded with the St. Louis County Recorder of Deeds within sixty (60) days of Commission approval, with a hard copy to be filed with the City of Chesterfield.

(3.) Redevelopment of an Approved PUD. In the event that an approved PUD is to be redeveloped to the extent that the approved land uses, parcels, densities, or ingress and egress onto the site are proposed to be modified; the existing PUD Ordinance will be required to be repealed and a new PUD Ordinance with all accompanied documents will be required to be submitted for approval by the City of Chesterfield. This new PUD Ordinance will be required to adhere to all requirements as described in this ordinance.

I. Time periods for submission of plans and commencement of construction and extensions of time.

One such extension shall be allowed for a maximum of eighteen (18) additional months.
- (2.) Commencement of construction. Substantial construction shall commence within two (2) years of approval of the site development plan or site development concept plan, unless otherwise authorized by ordinance. A notice of appeal shall be filed within fifteen (15) days of action by the Commission. Notice of appeal to the City Council shall be in writing and shall be filed in duplicate with the City Clerk of the City Council. The applicant shall have an additional thirty (30) days to file the appeal. The appeal shall set forth the specific causes why the previously approved time for the filing or recording of a site development concept plan, or beginning construction could not be met, and within what period of time such requirement can be met.

Upon receipt of an appeal for a time extension, it shall be forwarded to the Planning Commission for report therein as to whether or not the facts offered in the appeal have or have not justified the requested time extension. The City Council on receipt of the Commission's report may affirm, reverse, or modify, in whole or in part, any determination of the Planning Commission or may grant or deny any request for an extension of time upon which the Planning Commission has taken action. An affirmative vote of five members of the whole City Council shall be required to reverse, modify, or amend any determination of the Planning Commission.
