Tom Rothwell represented the CHLPC at a Planning and Public Works Committee meeting on August 8 concerning permission for a press release about students researching their neighborhood/subdivision. After permission was given, Aimee sent the article out to all Chesterfield subdivision trustees, Chesterfield Patch, West Newsmagazine, and Jewish Light. It will also be in the Citizen, the September Chesterfield Newsletter.

Collected 7 Chesterfield Historic posters which had been in Chesterfield businesses or other locations. We should write thank you notes to above.

Assigned some of the posters to be distributed to area schools. Rena, Jean, Ann, and Jane volunteered to contact one or more Chesterfield schools.

Suggested a Certificate of Merit for authors of research on neighborhoods.

Tom will find a method for scanning photos with their identification. This cannot be done using the City scanner.

2014 Calendars are on schedule and are at the printers for completion around Labor Day. 700 are ordered to sell at $2 each. Jane asked that thank you notes be written to each advertiser.

Jane Durrell suggested new policy for chairman of CHLPC length of term of office. She felt that the length of term for chairs of most City committees was not restricted. She moved that the chair's term be unrestricted, seconded by Arland. Motion passes.

Discussion about the problems of maintenance and question of ownership of the Arminia Cemetery on Olive where joined by the east bound lane from the new 141. The graves of many Civil War veterans are there.

On August 12 there is a public hearing on construction next to a historic cemetery on Schoettler by Clayton behind the Gascony Subdivision.

Jane Durrell was given an old scrapbook of the start of Spirit airport in the 1960's. The scrapbook of pictures will probably be given to the CHLPC.

Don Wiegand is moving out of his workshop/home/art gallery since a bank has foreclosed on it. He will continue working at an art gallery west on Olive . He will identify his home, property and all his sculptures within as a single sculpture at a “branding ceremony” at 5PM, Sunday, August 4.

The next two CHLPC meetings will be Thursday, October 17 at 5:30 and Thursday, November 14 at 5:30.
