Section 125 Plan 	Medical Flexible Spending Account allows employees to set aside before-tax dollars to pay for medical expenses not paid by insurance, the employer, or reimbursed by any other source. The election maximum is $3,050, with a $610 rollover maximum. Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account allows the employee to set aside before-tax dollars to pay for eligible dependent care expenses such as preschool, summer day camp, before or after school programs, and child or adult daycare. The election maximum is $5,000 per household or $2,500 if married, filing separately. Health Reimbursement Arrangement – Employees enrolled in the group medical plan are also enrolled in the Health Reimbursement Account (HRA). The benefit will reimburse the employee the full amount of the in-network deductible: $1,500 for individual coverage or $3,000 for family coverage (minimum of 2 family members required to meet the deductible).
Retirement  	401(a) Retirement Plan – All full-time employees at least 18 years of age are eligible for the 401(a) defined contribution plan. The City contributes 8% of the employee's gross earnings each pay period. An employee is 100% vested (earned the right to their entire account) after five (5) years of service. Deferred Compensation 457(b) Plan – This allows employees to defer a portion of their current compensation on a tax-advantaged basis for retirement. The 2022 IRS limit is $20,500. Participants are always fully vested in their employee contributions and may choose between a traditional pre-tax contribution and a Roth (after-tax) contribution. Retirement Plan Advisors is the financial advisor for the City of Chesterfield retirement plans and investments. Empower is the record keeper of the plan.
Basic Life Insurance, Long-Term Disability and Supplemental Life Insurance and Disability and Accident Plans 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Life Insurance – The City pays 100% of the premium for full-time active employees. The benefit amount is based on the basic life class description. • Supplemental Life and AD&D Insurance – Employees may purchase in increments of $10,000, subject to a maximum of $500,000. Supplemental Life Insurance is also available for spouses and children. • Long-Term Disability – Pays the employee 60% of monthly earnings with a maximum monthly benefit of $10,000. There is a 90-day elimination period, and the City pays 100% of the premium. • Supplemental Short-Term Disability – Employees may purchase in increments of $100.00 not to exceed 60% of annual salary to a maximum benefit of $2,000. Employees can elect to have benefits paid on the 8th day, 15th day, or 30th day for a disability caused by a non-work-related condition, illness, or injury. • Supplemental Accident Insurance – Helps employees pay for medical and out-of-pocket expenses incurred after an accidental injury. Employees may select a plan to help offset costs that may not be covered under the medical insurance plan. Spouses and children are also eligible for coverage. • Supplemental Critical Illness Insurance – Employees may purchase critical illness insurance that provides a lump-sum benefit upon diagnosis of a covered illness to be used however an employee chooses. Spouses and children are also eligible for coverage.
Education Assistance	Under the program parameters, the City will reimburse 100% of all required tuition and associated fees, including textbooks, up to a maximum of $2,500 per calendar year, per employee. Must be an approved institute of learning that is part of a degree program.
Wellness Program	The City of Chesterfield offers a wellness program, including a free workout facility, various incentives, discounted athletic center membership rates, annual health/wellness fair, fitness challenges, and other programs to improve health and productivity.
