Mary Brown is queen of the town!

City Council names her 2011 Citizen of the Year

A resident with a long history of service to Chesterfield is the latest Citizen of the Year.

The Chesterfield City Council voted the 2011 honor to Mary K. Brown, a member of the City's first Planning Commission from 1988 until March 1994. She was elected to the Chesterfield Council in 1997 and served until April 2007, representing Ward IV. During this time, she also was a liaison to the Planning Commission and the Beautification Committee.

A selection committee comprised of citizen committee and community volunteers presented recommendations to the City Council following a review of nominations. Mayor Bruce Geiger presented Ms. Brown with the award at the March 5 City Council Meeting, with many of her family and friends present.

The award is based on service benefiting Chesterfield through volunteerism, community projects, and overall civic contributions.

Former Mayor Nancy Greenwood was one of many who nominated Brown and stated, "Her priority was to serve Ward IV, and she was totally devoted to responding to residents. She was always known fondly as the "tree lady" and served as the Chair of the Tree Preservation Committee of the Moratorium Committee in 1997."

The result of this work was the creation of a tree ordinance. She also

Mayor's Message

Early spring finds fun, prosperity, exciting plans in Chesterfield

With the weatherman obviously confused, and spring apparently having started in February, we are well on our way to a record year for our residents to enjoy the many outdoor activities available throughout the City. Many walkers, joggers and bicyclists have been able to enjoy the Levee and Riparian Trails as well as the redesigned Central Park. We had a wonderful dedication for the new Eberwein Park. The incredibly popular dog park and the new Community Garden have been huge hits.

Our Earth Day Festival was the most successful to date and has established itself as one of the premier events of its kind in West County. Record-setting amounts of recycling were collected, and the atmosphere in the Chesterfield Amphitheater brought a new feel to the event. The sounds of summer concerts are gearing up along with Movies Under the Stars at the Chesterfield Amphitheater, and it promises to be another fun season. The Fourth of July will again be celebrated with an outstanding fireworks show, food offerings, more kids' activities and entertainment provided by the winners of the West County's Got Talent event held this spring. Several other new fall activities are being planned including a "Taste of Chesterfield Forks & Corks" event, with details to be announced in the near future.

The Chesterfield Valley Athletic Complex has opened for the new season with many improvements, including additional lighting, several new dugouts, two new practice fields, improved rest rooms and concession stands ready to accommodate the nearly 400,000 visitors expected at the complex this year.

On the economic front, we continue to see significant activity in the residential, office and retail segments. American Girl is a wonderful addition to our community, and sales have exceeded expectations in the short time the store has been open. The battle of the upscale outlet malls in the Valley continues with no winner yet determined. As I have said previously, one outlet mall will be built, not two, and the retail market will decide the outcome.

A new electronics retail store, hhGregg, is under construction in the Valley, and Oceano Bistro, a popular fresh fish and seafood restaurant in Clayton, will open in the former Andria's location. Mercy is finalizing its site-development plans for a new headquarters location in addition to a virtual care center. Additionally, we are in discussions with a large company to significantly expand its offices in Chesterfield, and we will hopefully be able to announce something in the very near future.

We continue to work with Chesterfield Arts, Stages St. Louis and the St. Louis Civic Orchestra to expand arts and culture in Chesterfield. We provide funding for each of these outstanding organizations and are committed to helping them grow and establish Chesterfield as the arts and cultural center for West County. Chesterfield Arts is currently leading an exciting art competition among various schools in the region with their "Take a Seat in Chesterfield" initiative. The chairs will be unveiled at the Chesterfield Amphitheater on June 2. If you are not already involved with these organizations, I urge you to get in touch with them and help us move this effort forward.

On the political front, all of the four incumbents for City Council won re-election handily. Congratulations to Barry Flachsbart, Elliot Grissom, Mike Casey and Connie Fults. I look forward to working with this knowledgeable and experienced group of legislators to continue making Chesterfield the city of choice.

Bruce Geiger

First Forks & Corks offers residents a Taste of Chesterfield

Make plans now to attend the inaugural Forks & Corks Taste of Chesterfield event at the Chesterfield Amphitheater on Saturday, Sept. 1

Ticket books will be used to purchase great samples from local restaurants, Missouri wineries and craft brewers. Music from local bands will add to the atmosphere. Organizers plan to make Forks & Corks an annual event.

Look for more information soon on the City web site and Facebook pages.

City ordinance says no to fireworks without a permit

A Chesterfield City ordinance has long prohibited individuals from either selling or discharging fireworks, except by permit.

The Chesterfield Ordinance pertaining to fireworks reads, in part, as follows:

(a) It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, offer for sale, ship or cause to be shipped into the corporate limits of the City of Chesterfield, any item of fireworks.

Sec. 13-23. Explosion, ignition, discharge unlawful.

It is unlawful for any person to explode, ignite or discharge any articles of fireworks within the corporate limits of the City.

local youth talent.

Entertainment will feature clowns, a stiltwalker, inflatables for kids, and midway games for all ages.

The fireworks show begins at 9:30 p.m.

Bring lawn chairs and your own refreshments (please, no glass bottles). Refreshments also will be sold.

PUBLIC WORKS

Road closing at Long, Wild Horse Creek and Kehrs Mill

Construction is underway to realign the intersection of Kehrs Mill Road, Long Road and Wild Horse Creek Road, and it will remain open to two-way traffic during most of the construction period.

However, from June 15 through July 13, the road will be closed to through traffic for the construction of the Kehrs Mill Road tie-in to the new bridge. During this closure, motorists will be able to travel on eastbound Wild Horse Creek Road to northbound Long Road and on southbound Long Road to west on Wild Horse Creek Road.

Help keep pet waste from polluting water

Pet waste left in yards comes into contact with stormwater when it rains. The stormwater then carries pollutants into the storm sewers, which drain the water directly to our area streams.

Dogs are major contributors to pet waste in our environment. Solutions include:

- Put the waste in a sealed bag and place in the trash.
- Flush down the toilet (do NOT flush plastic bags or kitty litter).
- Bury waste in the soil at least six inches deep (NOT in garden).
- Minimize pollution by having pets defecate in tall grass located away from storm inlets. This acts as a filter and allows for natural decomposition.
- Dog and cat feces contain bacteria, viruses and parasites that can infect humans. Always wash your hands after handling pet waste.
- Do NOT place pet waste in compost piles or around vegetable gardens where pathogens can contaminate food products.

served on the Citizens' Airport Awareness Committee for Ward IV from 2004 to 2007. "There is no one who has supported the City of Chesterfield and the greater community more steadily and constantly through the years than Mary Brown," Greenwood added.

Her other contributions to the community include volunteering with Circle of Concern and the League of Women Voters, as well as the Chesterfield Kiwanis. She is a board member of Chesterfield Arts and serves as that organization's liaison to the City's Architectural Review Board.

Wendy Geckeler, who also nominated Brown, said, "Mary's enthusiasm for Chesterfield has caused many others to become involved in civic endeavors; she exemplifies the very best of a contributing citizen to her community."

CITIZEN COMMITTEE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Household hazardous waste collection slated for June 16

A household hazardous waste collection is scheduled June 16 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at South County Center.

The Saint Louis County Health Department event will be south of the Dillard's and Sears stores. Best entry is from Lemay Ferry Road just south of South Lindbergh Boulevard.

Acceptable materials: Paints, stains, varnishes, pesticides, herbicides, poisons, gasoline and other fuels, solvents and strippers, aerosols, motor oil and filters, gas cylinders (BBQ pit size or smaller), fluorescent tubes, rechargeable batteries, antifreeze, brake and transmission fluid, pool chemicals and other acids and bases, car batteries, wood preservatives, driveway sealant, and items containing mercury (such as thermometers, thermostats, and mercuric salts).

Unacceptable items: Explosives and ammunition, smoke detectors, medical waste, household trash, tires, radioactive waste, electronics and bulky items.

Funding for these events comes from voter-approved St. Louis County landfill surcharge fees, and the events are for county residents only. Proof of residency, such as a driver's license or tax bill, will be required. Materials from businesses and from commercial, not-for-profit, and governmental organizations are prohibited.

Girl Scout Troop 1668 from Green Trails Elementary celebrated Arbor Day and the 100th Anniversary of the Girl Scouts by planting trees at the Chesterfield Amphitheater.

Two Scouts get Stellar Green Youth award

Two Cadette Girl Scouts from Troop 2534, Arya Naidu and Allison Wills, were honored by Mayor Bruce Geiger for their conservation work in our community.

The girls received the Stellar Green Youth Team award at Earth Day by participating in Arbor Day tree plantings, recycle drives, and for creating a native ecology garden for pollinators at Eberwein Park, where they continue to donate time.

These youth have worked with the Citizens Committee for the Environment for two consecutive years in three or more projects. A total of 51 young people have received the Stellar Green Youth Team Award. Congratulations to our young citizens!

Recycling Becomes Me initiative

If each household in Saint Louis County recycles just one extra aluminum can, we can prevent 77 tons of CO2 waste from going into the atmosphere.

Earth Day keeps 144 tons of stuff out of the landfill

Chesterfield's 21st Annual Earth Day Festival was celebrated April 21 at the Chesterfield Amphitheater and Central Park.

Vendors displayed eco-friendly items and information. Stage entertainment included a recycled-content fashion show by Girl Scout Troop 1171 and performances by Sohum Creative Arts and the World Bird Sanctuary.

More than 144 tons of materials were diverted from landfills during the recycling drive.

Katie Liesse models a tutu made of recycled plastic bags as part of a recycled fashion show by Girl Scout Troop 1711 of Incarnate Word. The show was part of the stage show at Chesterfield's Earth Day.

National Wildlife Federation upgrades Chesterfield's first-in-state certification

Having achieved its original Certified Community Wildlife Habitat Status of Exceptional Merit in 2005 from the National Wildlife Federation (NWF), the Citizens Committee for the Environment (CCE) has successfully worked to grow native habitat gardening and sustainability in Chesterfield.

CCE has added NWF-certified habitat gardens, provided sustainable gardening education, and has held events focused on sustainability through the previous year, adding sustainability metrics to its original certification.

For those efforts, our community was recertified as Missouri's first and the country's ninth NWF Certified Community! There are approximately 60 NWF Certified Communities throughout the United States. For more information, visit the city website.
